McLaren Vale, SA - Organic & Bio-dynamic Viticultures

The young free minds. For the pagans of the good times. The higher the vibration, the easier the flow. Release into what feels good. It's easy to taste – hard to hate....

Winemaker Matt Head portrays his love of an easy going life by the coast through mediterranean varieties and distinctive Australian packaging. Expressing the maritime influences of the district in laidback wines of style and personality.

Fruit is sourced from vineyards of sustainable management, with most being organic or bio-dynamic. The resulting wines are balanced, affable and great drinking for all involved, true to grape typicity and clarity.
