

Chalari Wines

Multi-Regional, WA - Low Input & Organic Viticultures

‘Chalari’, meaning relaxed, is homage to Alexi Chistidis’ Greek heritage and his father, always one for watching the world go by with a coffee or drink in hand. This forms the ethos behind the brand, not bound by any conventional limitations, Alexi produces with a natural and unscrewed mentality whilst keeping an observant watch over proceedings. Understanding always the essential balance of the art and science of winemaking.

Small parcels of fruit are sourced from some of the best vineyards across selected regions in WA, to build an eclectic range of exciting and focused small batch wines that are bursting out of the glass.
