

Luciano Arduini

Valpolicella, Italy - Organic Viticulture

The Arduini family's dedication and pride for Valpolicella's tradition is unwavering, boasting 80 years of experience in the region in the north east of Italy. The family vineyards were founded in 1940 by Gabrielle Arduini, his son Battista then expanded the farm in 1969 that now covers just 7ha, all within the Classico jurisdiction.

Today Luciano and his son Andrea manage the vineyard and winery. 3rd and 4th generations respectively, they carry on the winemaking traditions of their fathers passed in a sophisticated winery renovated in 2000.

With close attention to every step, they produce pure wines that represent their passion for Valpolicella. Showing great depth, length and incredible balance.

